

Roger Urwin Becomes Advisory Director to MSCI Barra

London - February 2, 2010 - MSCI Inc. (NYSE: MXB), a leading provider of investment decision support tools worldwide, announced today that Roger Urwin has become an Advisory Director to MSCI Barra. In this new role he will advise on key projects relating to the international asset owner community. Mr Urwin will provide his advisory services, on a part-time basis, to MSCI Barra in addition to his role as Global Head of Investment Content at Towers Watson.

"Roger is one of the most respected and knowledgeable people in the pensions industry and we are delighted to have him on board," said Henry Fernandez, Chairman and CEO of MSCI Inc. "He brings with him many years of experience in investment consulting, as well as a huge amount of insight into the asset owner and asset manager community. As an Advisory Director to MSCI Barra, Roger will play a key role in helping us to understand the needs of this important market, with a particular focus on ensuring that our MSCI indices and our Barra risk products continue to evolve to meet those needs."

Prior to joining Watson Wyatt in 1989, Mr Urwin headed the Mercer investment practice and led the business development and quantitative investment functions at Gartmore Investment Management. He is the author of a number of papers on asset allocation policy, manager selection and governance, and is on the Board of the CFA Institute and INQUIRE (the Institute for Quantitative Investment Research). He has been a member of the MSCI Editorial Advisory Board since its inception in 1998.

Mr Urwin has a degree in Mathematics from Oxford University and a Masters in Applied Statistics, also from Oxford. He qualified as a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries in 1983.
