

Barra Analytics Now Available Via RIMES

New Multi-Asset Class Performance and Attribution Platform Now Available

London - February 25, 2009 - MSCI Barra (NYSE: MXB), a leading provider of investment decision support tools worldwide, including indices and portfolio risk and performance analytics, is pleased to announce that its multi-asset class performance analytics are now available via RIMES, an integrator of financial market data for the global investment community.

'Barra Performance on RIMES', a new performance measurement and attribution platform available to RIMES subscribers, enables users to analyze the sources of portfolio return using several different attribution models, reflecting their investment processes and enabling them to make more informed investment decisions.

Christian Fauvelais, Chief Executive Officer and Co-President of RIMES Technologies said, "Barra Performance on RIMES combines MSCI Barra's outstanding performance analytics with RIMES' breadth and depth of data. We are delighted to be working with MSCI Barra to offer a performance measurement and attribution platform which simplifies and streamlines portfolio analysis and reporting."

"The successful development of Barra Performance on RIMES is a direct result of the close working relationship that we have with RIMES," added Roveen Bhansali, Managing Director and Head of the Analytics Business at MSCI Barra. "Barra Performance on RIMES provides yet another opportunity for market participants to access our multi-asset class performance capabilities."
