The evolution of its organizational structure will ensure that it deepens its understanding of clients' needs, delivers innovative, leading-edge solutions to address those needs, and demonstrates its growing leadership in corporate responsibility.

MSCI Solutions

Remy Briand, MSCI's current Head of ESG & Climate, has been appointed Chief Product Officer. In this newly created role, Mr. Briand will be responsible for leading and driving MSCI's integrated product suite to meet the needs of clients looking for holistic solutions to tackle investment challenges, capitalize on opportunities and navigate industry change. He will continue to report to Baer Pettit, President and Chief Operating Officer at MSCI.

In addition to Chief Product Officer, Mr. Briand will also become Head of Index as Diana Tidd, current Head of Index and Chief Responsibility Officer, becomes fully dedicated to the role of Chief Responsibility Officer. Over the last 10 years, he has focused on leading the expansion of client solutions across MSCI's ESG business, working closely with Mr. Briand. In this role, Mr. Moen will oversee the day-to-day operations of the ESG and Climate team and drive collaboration and innovation across MSCI's product lines.
