1 General Methodology Overview

MSCI Corporate Bond Indexes aim to serve as a measure of performance of the credit markets. The indexes are designed to represent relative performance at various levels of the investment process.

The MSCI Corporate Bond Indexes conform to a general construction guideline as described in this methodology. They are rules based with consideration to the following factors:

- Size
- Maturity
- Credit Rating

The indexes are designed to be replicable irrespective of the institutional investor's domicile. This requirement makes the bond eligibility requirements stricter than a broader index. One of the primary requirements of constituents in such an index is that they have sufficient liquidity.
2 Index Construction Guidelines

2.1 Universe Construction

The MSCI Corporate Bond Index includes securities selected from the global credit universe. In general, the universe includes all bullet, callable, and puttable fixed rate coupon bonds. Issues with tax-advantages, index-linked and perpetual bonds are excluded. In terms of capital structure, only senior secured, senior unsecured and subordinated (both junior and senior) debt are included. Capital securities, such as preferred stock, are not eligible to be part of the index. Note that credit universe construction may have variations across currencies and credit rating buckets.

The bond types that are eligible and ineligible for the construction of the USD IG Credit universe are tabulated below.

2.2 MSCI Corporate Bond Index

Securities are included in the MSCI Corporate Bond Index based on the following criteria:

Credit Rating: Each index constituent must be rated by either by S&P or Moody’s.

In the Investment Grade (IG) Credit Index, the minimum rating criteria used for inclusion in the index is BBB- and Baa3 for S&P and Moody’s respectively. For a bond rated by both S&P and Moody’s, the lower rating will be used as the inclusion criteria.

Country of Domicile: Bonds included in the index must be from issuers domiciled in Developed Markets as per MSCI Market Classification\(^1\).

Size: Each bond included in the index will have notional amount outstanding greater than or equal to the cut-offs (as per index’s universe definition) tabulated below.

minimum bond size criteria over the next 1 month as measured from the Rebalancing Date.

Weighting: MSCI Corporate Bond Index is an issuance weighted index. Index constituents will be weighted by market value\(^3\) within the index.

Pricing: MSCI uses bid side pricing from data vendors. Bonds included in the index are priced to par. Bonds not priced by the designated pricing source are ineligible for index inclusion.

Settlement: Standard index settlement convention will be same-day (T+0), unless otherwise specified.

3 Index Rebalancing & Maintenance

- The composition of the MSCI Corporate Bond Index is reviewed monthly, with Rebalancing Date being first business date of the month.

- Change in the index composition is based on latest data available as of three days prior to the Rebalancing Date which is defined as the Cut-Off Date.

- MSCI will announce proforma index rebalancing results as of the Cut-Off Date.

- Bonds are added to or deleted from the index only on monthly rebalancing dates, except in case of an exchange type event. For the existing index components any changes to index eligibility will only be reflected in the next monthly rebalancing.

- Any inclusion or exclusion criteria satisfied for a given security in the universe, after the Cut-Off Date, will generally become effective at the following monthly rebalancing; should conditions remain unchanged.

- Any cash that accrues within the index in a given month is re-invested on a pro-rata basis across the index constituents, on the Rebalancing Date. In essence, cash in the index is swept out on rebalancing and the opening index portfolio on the Rebalancing Date starts with zero accrued cash balance.

- Certain variants of total return calculation of the index on the Rebalancing Date may be adjusted for transaction cost as securities that are added to the index are added at the offer price and securities that are maintained or deleted at the bid price.

For further information on index total return calculation, corporate events handling, and holiday calendar please refer to the MSCI Fixed Income Index Calculation Methodology.

None of the Information constitutes an offer to sell (or a solicitation of an offer to buy), any security, financial product or other investment vehicle or any trading strategy. It is not possible to invest directly in an index. Exposure to an asset class or trading strategy or other category represented by an index is only available through third party investable instruments (if any) based on that index. MSCI does not issue, sponsor, endorse, market, offer, review or otherwise express any opinion regarding any fund, ETF, derivative or other security, investment, financial product or trading strategy that is based on, linked to or seeks to provide an investment return related to the performance of any MSCI index (collectively, “Index Linked Investments”). Index returns do not represent the results of actual trading of investable securities/assets. MSCI manages and calculates indexes, but does not manage actual assets. Index returns do not reflect payment of any sales charges or fees an investor may pay to purchase the securities underlying the index or Index Linked Investments. The imposition of these fees and charges would cause the performance of an Index Linked Investment to be different than the MSCI index performance.

The Information may contain back tested data. Back-tested performance is not actual performance, but is hypothetical. There are frequently material differences between back tested performance results and actual results subsequently achieved by any investment strategy.

Constituents of MSCI equity indexes are listed companies, which are included in or excluded from the indexes according to the application of the relevant index methodologies. Accordingly, constituents of any Index Linked Investments may include MSCI Inc., clients of MSCI or suppliers to MSCI. Inclusion of a security within an MSCI index is not a recommendation by MSCI to buy, sell, hold or sell such security, nor is it considered to be investment advice.
